FAMILY STONES · NEW PIECES
DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES

FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

Bring the stone your grandmother wore.

A stone from Tehran, Beirut, Yerevan or Mumbai means a lot to a family. We keep the stone and make a new piece for the one who wears it next.

Maryam Najvan is a sculptor, shown in galleries. For years she has made frames around stones, first in wire, now in gold.

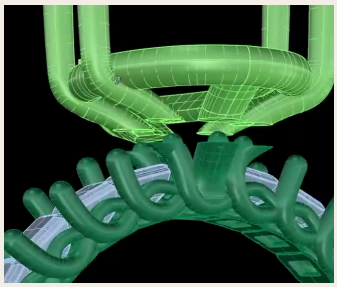

SCULPTURE · WIRE AROUND STONE, BY MARYAM NAJVAN

FROM OLD STONE TO NEW PIECE

I WE STUDY THE STONE

II SHE DESIGNS AROUND IT IN CAD

III THE FINISHED RING

· OR A STONE IN FOLDED GOLD

WHAT FAMILIES BRING

One diamond, made into an engagement ring.

Earrings, made into a pendant for a daughter.

Many family stones, put together in one piece.

A name in Persian, Hebrew, Armenian, Arabic or any writing.

HOW IT WORKS

I Bring the old piece and tell us its story.

II Drawings, then a CAD model for your stone.

III Expert partners set the stone. She checks each step.

IV One piece, made one time, to pass on again.
